

YOU'RE INVITED

to a course in

READING THE BIBLE FOR MEANING using Analytical Reading

as developed by Nedra Newkirk Lamar

hosted by Daystar Foundation and Library

The course includes:

- five principles and patterns of conversational emphasis and phrasing, and how to apply them to your Bible reading;
- how to give the writer's meaning and avoid your own misinterpretation;
- how to look for key relationships of ideas that you never noticed before; and
- practice reading Bible passages aloud clearly.

Instructor Dorsha Campbell has been teaching Analytical Reading for 50 years. She has taught hundreds of church Readers, as well as over 100 group classes in over 50 cities. She has received hundreds of comments from First and Second Readers acknowledging the value of Analytical Reading. A recent one said, "...these valuable analytical reading lessons...have made a world of difference in my spiritual growth and service as Second Reader."
